

SA Migration Newsletter

02 / 2011

1. SA Migration International

SA Migration International was created out of the need for a specialist organization to assist people wishing to immigrate, volunteer, work, bring family, study or open businesses in South Africa.

We will guide you through the entire process to require the appropriate permit. Once we confirm that you will qualify for the visa, we will guarantee you a successful application. This is normally done in the first consultation - which is for free.

5. What's so attractive about South Africa?

25. Nov. 2011 Marisa Bermdsen

When I met up with Martine Schaffer, managing director of the Homecoming Revolution, earlier this week she was full of energy. Surprisingly so, considering the month she has had. The Homecoming Revolution team has just returned from its second Careers Expo in London. They were joined by 35 of South Africa and the world's top companies looking to attract UK-based South Africans with important skills back home.

9. Judge jumps on Home Affairs for bungling

25. Nov. 2011 Argus -Fatima Schroeder - High Court Writer

A WESTERN Cape High Court judge has accused the Department of Home Affairs of “administrative bungling” and has given it 30 working days to determine a host of temporary residence permit applications submitted to it as far back as February last year. Some of these relate to exotic dancers wanting documents so that they could work here.

10. Top 8 hidden holiday destinations South Africa

08. Nov. 2011 Tania, SA-Venues.com

South Africa is a vast and varied landscape with beautiful accommodation and amazing places to visit. But instead of telling you about places you probably already know about I thought we could dive into a few places that are slightly off the beaten track, haven't been given favourite spot status yet but are so fantastic they need to be shared. So, in no particular order here they are:
